

The Glory in the midst art Thou

Stracathro: Charles Hutcheson, 1792-1860

The image displays a musical score for a hymn. It consists of four systems of music, each with a treble and bass clef staff. The key signature is one sharp (F#) and the time signature is common time (C). The music is written in a simple, hymn-like style with chords and some melodic lines. The first system has 8 measures, the second and third have 8 measures each, and the fourth has 4 measures. The piece concludes with a double bar line.

"The glory in the midst" Eccl. 2:5

"That in all things He might have the pre-eminence" Col. 1:18

1.

The Glory in the midst art Thou
The sunlight in the air,
The crown of crowns is on Thy brow,
Thy touch is everywhere.

2.

And lowly gathering round Thy feet
In this Thine own abode,
O Love Divine, our love would greet
Thy love on every road.

3.

Thine, Lord, the fruit on laden bough,
And Thine the treasure-store;
The Glory in the midst art Thou,
We worship and adore.
